Embassy of Finland
Windhoek

Historians without Borders

Special Panel by Historians without Borders-

Dialogue between European and African historians in the era of Geopolitical Upheavals

9 October 2025, 16:15 – 17:45

Namibia Scientific Society, 110 Robert Mugabe Avenue, Windhoek

Moderator:

Blance Susline Goresis
Senior Reporter at the Namibian Broadcasting Corporation (NBC)

Panelists:

Dr. Erkki Tuomioja
Docent of Contemporary History, Former Minister for Foreign Affairs of Finland

Prof. Teivo Teivainen
Professor, University of Helsinki

Dr. Napandulwe Shiweda
University of Namibia

Ms. Golda Ha-Eiros
Senior Curator of Anthropology, Namibian National Museum

Prof. Ellen Namhila
Pro-Vice Chancellor, University of Namibia

Hon. Helmut Kangulohi Angula
Chairman of Group of Naras Investment, Former Member of Cabinet of Namibia

Historians without Borders in Finland promotes historical awareness, historical debate and the use of historical information for conflict prevention and resolution. Founded in 2015, the association also acts as the secretariat for the International Network of Historians without Borders.